The Lighting of the Christ Candle

The ? Family

Leader: Our Savior is born a baby!

People: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Leader: Jesus Christ became flesh and blood and moved into the neighborhood.

People: Shout to the Lord, all the earth. Alleluia!

Leader: Jesus is both a mirror to humanity and a window to divinity.

People: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

Leader: Christmas reminds us that God is with us, here and now. Infant Jesus calls out the best in us.

What is our response to the Beloved?

People: We will give him our hearts.

Leader: We light the Christ Candle. Let us pray.

ALL: O Gracious God, Creator of the Shining Stars, we wish to travel with haste to Bethlehem and greet Jesus. We desire to take in all that you have made known to us in his wondrous birth. Bless us with your grace as we reach out and welcome Christ Jesus into our lives. Amen. *

Opening Hymn # 102

Once in Royal David's City

IRBY

Verse II – Choir only

1. Once in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby
In a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ, her little child.

3. And through all his wondrous
childhood
He would honour and obey,
Love and watch the lowly maiden,
In whose gentle arms he lay:
Christian children all must be
Mild, obedient, good as he.

5. And our eyes at last shall see him,
Through his own redeeming love,
For that child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in Heaven above;
And he leads his children on
To the place where he is gone.

2. He came down to earth from Heaven
Who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable,
And his cradle was a stall.
With the poor and mean and lowly
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

4. For he is our childhood's pattern,
Day by day like us he grew,
He was little, weak, and helpless,
Tears and smiles like us he knew:
And he feeleth for our sadness,
And he shareth in our gladness.

6. Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see him; but in Heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
Where like stars his children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

Greeting

The Bidding Prayer followed by the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

This Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols has been adapted from the traditional "Service of Lessons & Carols" held at King's College, Cambridge University. This service, itself an adaptation of a service instituted by Archbishop Benson at Truro Cathedral, was first presented on Christmas Eve, 1919, in King's College Chapel, and continues as a much celebrated annual tradition in many denominations across the world.

The Bidding Prayer reminds us that the purpose of this service is to tell the story of our redemption as it is set forth in Holy Scripture. The prayers and the carols are offerings of praise to God as we move from darkness and waiting into light and hope.

Participating in this morning's service:

The Rev. Hill Riddle, Interim Rector
Caroline Carson, Director of Music
Natalie True, Organist
