Victoria's Secrets

This concert features music from the age of Tomas Luis de Victoria (1548-1611). This is the period of the late Renaissance and pinnacle of polyphonic vocal writing. A few selections are from the period of the reign of Queen Victoria (1838-1901) The music chosen was familiar to the Queen. Georges Bizet was one of her favorite composers. The last piece simply makes a fun, big ending! We hope that you enjoy this presentation of some of the music we are learning this semester!

Non Nobis Domine William Byrd (1539-1623)
Psallite Michael Praetorius (1571-1621)
